

become intoxicated and frequently lie out all night in the streets or at some of those degraded places of debipation. He associated with no persons of reputation and generally resorted to those places of debipation of the most degraded and immoral character and frequently your petitioner would not see him for a whole day and night. She used to have but all respect for his own character his family and your petitioner and that she did not spend one hour at any time with him when he was perfectly sober and rational from the time she went to Hamburg until she left him Your petitioner humbly represents to your Honorable body that her situation was so extremely disagreeable and uncomfortable as she used to ~~have~~ give herself up entirely to debipation and to associate of so low and degraded a character that she could no longer remain with him but left his mother's house in the month of May - in the year 1832 and went to the residence of a friend in Hamburg
